Keeping Up - - With Uplanders

By V. V. P.

ROUND-UP

It may be timely to give a little summary of what is going on in the community. If a person doesn't closely follow the day to day happenings, he gets lost in the maze of developments.

Often we are asked: "How's the parking district coming?" With emphasis we give a very encouraging answer. It takes time—much of it—for the red tape to be unwound. At the moment, Francis Johnson, an appraiser and former Uplander, is making a study of the value of the property proposed to be bought for use as parking sites. His report may be ready at the city council meeting March 17.

Likewise, progress is being made in making plans for the proposed Second avenue crossing over the Santa Fe.

Why all the interest by financial concerns in getting a charter in Upland? We cannot answer that from our own knowledge but it would indicate tremendous development is forecast.

In any event, the Upland Savings and Loan association has tentative permission to proceed with its organization. Congratulations to Ralph Miller and Charles Milshier for their leadership in this movement.

The Stuft Shirt corporation can now make definite plans for a deluxe restaurant and motel. Norman Goss, president, said yesterday construction would be started within six months.

How about the so-called Buck deal?

Carl M. Buck, who is improving the six acres he bought from the city, is back from a Cuban vacation. He said yesterday he would be in Upland the first of the week and added: "You can expect an announcement about some new stores within a very short time."

It's fun going 'round the world—while staying home.

Every few weeks our household receives an article or a product from a foreign country, the latest being an Alabaster statue from the Kingdom of San Marino. While the items from all parts of the world are interesting, each object stirs interest in the country from which it comes.

San Marino is the world's smallest and most ancient republic. It is surrounded by Italy, yet has remained completely independent since its founding in the fourth century.

According to tradition, a Christian stonecutter called Marino took refuge on the mountain tops during the years of the birth of Christianity. Soon, other people came and gradually a village was built on the precipitous heights. Due to this strange but strategic position, San Marino has kept free of the world's upheavals for more than 1,500 years.

RETIREMENT EASY

Retired for more than a year, Everett E. Carter is finding his new life "not at all difficult."

A popular topic for conversation and writers is discussing the question: "How to Retire"

Mr. Carter, who for many years served the Upland police department, declares with emphasis: "It is no problem for me. The only problem I have is to stay home long enough. I would like to do more traveling."

Mrs. Carter's mother is residing with the couple at 859 North Second avenue. "I help the kids some,"—he explained this reference meant his grandchildren and the family of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thrall.

"I do some painting down at the church," he said and this comment referred to the First Baptist church.

"I only wish I could really retire and do only what I wanted to," he added.

EASY TO STOP SPEEDERS

It is easy to slow down traffic on our highways. At least in Saudi Arabia there is an answer. A new law reads:

"If an accident occurs as a result of speed and negligence and does not result in death, the offender will be imprisoned for one year and his driving license will be withdrawn. If an accident results in the death of any passengers and the driver is proved to have been the cause, he will be executed, whomever he might be."

Reports from Saudi Arabia have it that one motorist already has been executed under the provision of the law.

Man Held After Arrest Discloses 8 Bogus Checks

Police today are awaiting the outcome of an investigation to determine if John E. Sharpe, 46, giving a home address at Salt Lake City, Utah, is wanted in other cities after his arrest Tuesday disclosed uncashed forged checks on his person.

The Utah man was arrested by Officer Felix Quesada at Second Ave. and C St. who started to make a routine inebriety investigation. The Upland officer was able to stop destruction of checks the man was crumbling in his hands.

Lodged in the police station, Sharpe had three forged checks in a trousers pocket in addition to the five Officer Quesada prevented him from destroying.

Also found in the man's possession were five pawn shop tickets.

He gave a local address of 243 S. Second Ave.

The checks were drawn on the Ontario branch of the Bank of America and made out for $10 each. The name of J. E. Marlin was signed to the checks.

Sharpe admitted to police he had no account in the Ontario bank.

He was arraigned on a drunk charge before Judge Fred H. Jacobs in Upland justice court yesterday. Judge Jacobs accepted Sharpe's guilty plea and sentenced him to 15 days in county jail.

Police said today the man had no previous record and they have received no answers to a general information teletype sent out Tuesday.

2 Big Industries Studying Site On Etiwanda Ave

Two major industries are prospective occupants of a 670 acre tract on Etiwanda avenue north of the Mira Loma quartermaster depot, Andy Crevolin, new owner, said yesterday. The site is large enough to accomodate only one of the concerns and Mr. Crevolin expressed the belief a definite announcement could be expected before many months.

Employmt would range from 5,000 to 8,000 people, according to the former Alhambra automobile dealer and race horse owner. He said he could not divulge names of the prospective plants.

The area is zoned for heavy industry.

Mr. Crevolin has also just purchased from Vita Mandalla a 40 acre industrial site at the southeast corner of Turner avenue and Sixth street. These transactions were handled by the Ralph H. Miller organization.

UC Lyceum Program To Feature Former Radio Quartet Star

The Upland College Lyceum committee has announced that Arthur Jaissle and his wife Genevieve will present a program of sacred music March 28.

Mr. Jaissle, a bass, is a member of the world-famed "Old Fashioned Revival Hour Quartet". Mrs. Jaissle is an accomplished pianist whose musical education has included study under Marguerita Lohman, well-known concert pianist and instructor.

Johnson Brothers Buy Cucamonga Store And Building

Purchase of the Cucamonga Hardware Co. store and building by Everett and Ernest Johnson from Henry G. Klusman has been announced. The store is one of the pioneer commercial firms in the historic community. The late Pete Klusman was manager of the store until his death.

The two Johnson brothers are proprietors of the A-1 Building Supply, 140 South First avenue. Ernest Johnson said it was uncertain as to what would be done with the business and the building.

Giving With A Smile

Mrs. Harold Rowe, 456 N. Second Ave., right, hands over a substantial donation to Mrs. Harry Plum, 484 N. Second Ave., one of 242 workers engaged in the present Red Cross fund drive. Red Cross workers in the residential districts often encounter the homemakers working among shrubs and flowers. Mrs. Rowe is pictured in the beautiful garden at the rear of her home.

First Returns In Red Cross Drive Indicate Wide Community Interest In Program

Indicative of district-wide giving and of efforts on the part of 25 precinct captains is the report that $1,400 have been received in the Red Cross quota.

Will R. Mason, campaign chairman, said this total provided a basis for optimism.

"It indicates to me that the captains are making collections and that people are responding to the Red Cross appeal," he said. "In no case is the solicitation complete but the captains are turning in money and making reports even though some collections have been small."

On behalf of the solicitors Mr. Mason appealed for immediate response from the general public. Contributions may be sent directly to the Red Cross office or to either of the banks and thus the work of house-to-house solicitation would be reduced, according to the chairman.

"In any event I am hopeful our quota will be reached soon," he added. "It is essential for the Upland district to do it part this year just as it always has in the past."

Heads P-TA.

Mrs. Rick E. Byrket who will direct activities of the Upland Elementary Parent-Teacher association during the year.

Mrs. R. E. Byrket Takes Office As P-TA President

Mrs. Rick E. Byrket took office as president of the Upland Elementary Parent-Teacher association for the coming year during installation ceremonies held Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the Elementary school.

Mrs. Albert B. Weisbrod, past president, was installing officer. Seated with Mrs. Byrket were Mrs. Wendell Harmon, vice-president; Mrs. Donald L. Bowers, secretary; Mrs. Fred C. Perry, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Davis, historian; Mrs. Donald I. Ricci, parliamentarian; and Mrs. James Fero, auditor. Each officer received a lovely corsage.

Mrs. Dean Engle presented the past president's pin to Mrs. Oren W. Volz, outgoing president, who in turn presented the president's pin and gavel to Mrs. Byrket.

Don Vannoy, minister of the Upland Church of Christ, gave the thought for the day.

During the business session, annual reports were given by the outgoing officers and committee chairmen. It was voted to make a gift of $125 to Baldy View P-T A. to help with its organizational expenses.

The program featured the Alta Loma Folk Dance group, who appeared in a number of dances, including German, Swiss and Israeli. Dancers were Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Weisbrod, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bertino, Miss Lucile McDonald and John Northrop.

A social hour concluded the evening, and refreshments were served by the first grade room mothers and their assistants, including the Mesdames Franklin Welch, Paul Geren, Arthur Wood, A. P. McGowan, Jr. and W. A. Spears.

Future Hinges On Insurance Stipulation

Local Savings and Loan Backers Faced With Pomona Competition

With one hurdle reached and at least another major one to overcome, the proposed Upland Savings and Loan association is today the local winner in the race for a charter from the California Building and Loan commission.

The next hurdle is to receive approval from the Federal Home Loan Bank board for a policy of deposit insurance. Race for this approval is between the proposed local association and the First Federal Savings & Loan association of Pomona. The Pomona firm, federally chartered, has applied for a branch association in Upland.

Three applicants were in the race in the public hearing before the state commission in Los Angeles Tuesday. The group, including Ralph Miller, Jack Clark, Charles Milhiser and others, was awarded a conditional charter. One of the conditions is to open for business within a year and another condition is approval by the federal agency for depositors' insurance.

Paul Walker, president of the Pomona group, said his association is federally chartered and was, therefore, not among the applicants for a state charter at the Tuesday hearing. Its application for an Upland branch has been on file in Washington for several weeks. Application by the proposed Upland group for the federal insurance will be processed immediately, according to Mr. Miller.

Expressions from local people are reported to be important in support of the application for the Upland insurance policy, Mr. Milhiser said.

Two Other Applicants

The two other applicants for a state building and loan charter were the proposed Foothill Building and Loan association, headed by Arthur B. Wilson, and the Euclid Savings and Loan association, Ontario, which sought an Upland branch.

Tentative plans are under way by the Upland association for use of the present Bank of America building. Andrew Crevolin, who has recently purchased the bank building, is among the incorporators of the proposed Upland association. Other incorporators are L. J. Barden, general manager of Garrett & Co., Kirk Hill, La Verne, who is head of the Kirkhill Rubber Co., A. S. Vinnell, head of the Vinnell Steel Corp., Azusa, Mr. Miller, Mr. Milhiser and Mr. Clark.

Survey Planned To Determine Available Shelter

A survey is to be made of 500 Upland homes to determine the number of persons that can be accomodated in case of a mass evacuation from the Los Angeles basin and the Fontana area, Howard Paulin, fire chief and assistant civil defense director, said today.

At a meeting of CD officials in San Bernardino Tuesday it was decided to hold this informal survey to determine accurately the amount of housing available for evacuees, he said.

The survey will not be in the form of a committment in case of a future disaster. It is a method used to determine how much housing is available over the entire area by using a comparative ratio after polling 500 homes.

Miss Eunice Mitchell, executive secretary of the Upland Red Cross and head of mass care in time of disaster of the local CD unit, will be in charge of arrangements for the survey, Mr. Paulin said.

Date of the survey will be subject to Miss Mitchell's plans, he said.

Blazing Truck Tires Bring Fire Fighters From Ontario, Upland

The Ontario and Upland fire departments combined forces yesterday morning to extinguish a blaze starting in two flat tires on a truck parked along San Bernardino freeway east of the Sultana Ave. overpass.

F. La Ftina, driver for Scalzo Co., Baldwin Park, told firemen he had two flat tires and pulled to the side of the freeway. He caught a ride searching for a telephone to report his trouble to the home office.

While he was gone the overheated flat tires ignited and caught the underside of the 1½ ton flatbed truck he was driving. Minor damage resulted to bags of plaster loaded on the truck.

Judge Upholds City Attorney In Kelber Suit

For the second time a demurrer filed by City Attorney Henry Busch in the suit to recover money paid into the City of Upland storm drain and park and school site funds was sustained by Superior Judge Archie Mitchell, Superior Court records disclosed.

The suit filed by Mike Kelber, Ontario developer, and B. F. Hungerford, Upland realtor, asked that $2,040 paid to the city be refunded because the charges are contrary to the laws of the state of California.

Mr. Kelber asked that $1,140 be refunded on a 38 lot subdivision east of Euclid Ave. at 14th St. and Mr. Hungerford filed for a $900 return on 30 lots west of Euclid Ave. at 15th St.

The suit filed by Kelber & Kelber, Ontario attorneys, was not complete in setting out in what specific manner the charges were in violation of state laws, a demurrer filed by City Attorney Busch contended. Judge Mitchell sustained this contention.

In an amended petition filed by Kelber & Kelber the charges are said to be in a violation of the ordinances substantiating the collection of charges for the two funds.

The demurrer sustained Friday was in answer to the amended petition. City Attorney Busch pointed out that the amended petition indicated uncertainty in the way action by the city council was unconstitutional and did not set out what part of the ordinances was being challenged by the plaintiffs as being unconstitutional.

The action by Judge Mitchell makes necessary filing of another amended petition by Kelber & Kelber to show the specific infraction of state law by the ordinance according to their contentions.

Blood Donations Total 5 Gallons Since 1942

Frank McMakin, Foothill Blvd. at Central Ave., recently donated a pint of blood to the blood bank that brought to an even five gallons the total of his blood donations since early in World War II.

His first experience as a blood donor was soon after this country entered World War II. At regular intervals, he made trips to the mobile unit and donated to the armed forces blood bank. After the end of hostilities he continued donations. Over the years this has amounted to enough blood to fill a small size oil drum.

Mr. McMakin drives the tow truck for Alan Couch Chevrolet service, 356 E. Foothill Blvd. Besides donating blood as a hobby he also specializes in pictures of wrecked automobiles.

Upon arriving at the scene of a wreck he gets out a small camera he carries and photographs the scene. He has an album with hundreds of pictures of cars that he has been called upon to tow off the highway.

Stuft Shirt Inc. Gets Approval On Foothill Site

Upland is in line today for $6,000,000 in new commercial and residential development following approval by the city council of three zone change applications that cleared the way for two commercial projects and a 379 lot subdivision.

During the public hearing, held by the council, on the zone change request by Norman L. Goss, principal owner of Stuft Shirt, Inc., in Pasadena, for a change from residential (R-1B) to commercial (C-4) on seven acres at the northwest corner of Foothill Blvd. and Euclid Ave. not a dissenting voice was raised.

Mr. Goss gave a brief outline of his proposal to construct and operate a drive-in hotel and better class restaurant. Councilmen discussed the land useage plan as approved by the planning commission. They voted unanimously that City Attorney Henry Busch prepare an ammendment to the comprehensive zoning ordinance authorizing the change.

Mr. Busch prepared the ordinance during the meeting and the first reading was held late in the session.

Bertisch Applications

The council also approved two zone change applications by Max Bertisch, subject to clearance of the tracts by the county flood control district, now holding the land under easement.

Ellsworth J. Epperson, engineer retained by Mr. Bertisch,

Construction To Start On Stuft Shirt Project With Next Six Months

Actual construction of the Stuft Shirt corpogation restaurant at the northwest corner of Foothill boulevard and Euclid avenue will be under way "within five or six months," Norman Goss, Pasadena, president, said yesterday.

"We are working hard on it," he said in discussing the many problems involving construction. "I am very appreciative of the approval given us in the city hall and I can assure people in Upland we will get started on the building just as soon as possible."

He said approximately $600,000 would be spent by his corporation in site development, building and furnishings.

Phone Numbers To Be Changed

All telephone users in Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga and Mt. Baldy will have new numbers when the General Telephone Co. building on West Foothill boulevard is occupied Jan. 15.

T. H. Powell, local manager of the company, said change in numbers is essential with the start of use of the new equipment. The new number system will also be planned so when the long-distance dial system is inaugurated in the southland no additional changes will be necessary.

A supplemental telephone directory, listing all the new numbers will be issued at the opportune time.

Mr. Powell said construction of the new building is ahead of schedule. The company's East Ninth St. office will continue to be used for customer service, Mr. Powell said.

Concert Group Expects Demand For Membership

Memberships in the Community Concert association may be obtained immediately or from one of the local representatives during the week of March 21, it was announced yesterday by association officers.

Two hundred people served last year as "salesmen" for the first concert program and these people are being invited to attend the "kick off" dinner which will be in the Upland Woman's clubhouse at 6:30 p.m. March 21. All data about ticket sales will be given to the active workers at that time. Persons wanting to sell tickets in advance may obtain their "packets" now from Jack Clark's automotive agency office in Ontario. Mark Bradburn is also assisting Mr. Clark in distribution of the material. Colborn Electric Co. will be the local headquarters for the association membership campaign.

Mr. Bradburn reported an increased demand for tickets and the outlook is bright for an early sale of the 2,200 memberships.

As was the case last season, individual admissions will not be sold to the various attractions, admittance being restricted to association members only. Membership in the local association entitles persons to attend association concerts in other cities due to a reciprocal arrangement.

Election Rally Planned Today In Cucamonga

A rally is scheduled this afternoon in Cucamonga's "Northtown" to encourage voters to go to the polls tomorrow in a $225,000 school bond election necessary for construction of a new school building for the Cucamonga elementary district, following near-condemnation of the old building by structural engineers.

The rally will include a parade through Northtown streets made up of American Legion members, school children, Girl Scouts, members of the American Improvement Assoc., merchants, members of the P-TA and school patrons.

Members of the board of trustees recently invited the public to examine findings of structural engineers and a field representative of the state board of education concerning the present school building.

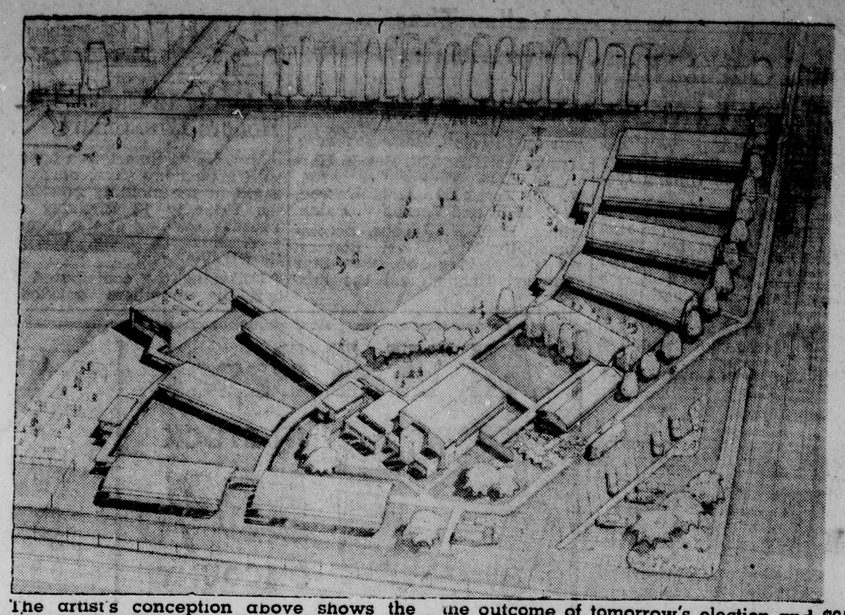

The investigation revealed the 40-year-old building to be substandard in all departments and a danger in case of fire, earthquake or windstorm because of deteriorated floor supports, studding and rafters.

Heavy Tile Roof

The heavy tile roof and weakened rafters presents one of the greatest dangers to occupants of the building in case of earthquake or windstorm, the structural engineers found.

Although the board of trustees or employes of the school district are barred by law from taking any part in election campaigning, the board feels that the public should be fully informed as to the dire condition of the old schoolhouse and for that reason the report was thrown open to the public, George Partridge, school board president, said.

Plans have been approved for erection of a new school structure if the school bond election carries. A site of 15 acres south of Arrow highway on the east side of Archibald Ave. has been purchased by the board for the proposed school.

The artist's conception above shows the school plant and school grounds arrangement as designed by H. L. Gogerty, Los Angeles architect, and approved by the Cucamonga elementary board of trustees. This is to be financed by $225,000 in bonds, depending on the outcome of tomorrow's election and $650,000 to be borrowed from state aid funds for schools. The average taxpayer's cost will amount to two cents a day. The new site is located on the east side of Archibald Avenue, south of Arrow highway.

The Rev. William E. Thompson, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, performed the double-ring ceremony at 8 o'clock. Decorating the chancel were baskets of white stock and potted palms, flanked by candelabra.

Mrs. Carl Hess, organist, played the traditional wedding marches, and accompanied the vocalist, Warren K. Sheets, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white lace and nylon net over white satin. The lace bodice was fashioned with high neckline with Peter Pan collar and long sleeves, and the full skirt of nylon net with lace inserts swept into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara of pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Jerry Lane of Monrovia, who attended her sister as matron of honor, was gowned in turquoise taffeta with matching headpiece and mitts, and carried a bouquet of variegated pink camellias with lavender and white sweet peas.

The bridesmaids, Miss Jeannette Davis and Mrs. Paul Gish, wore deep rose taffeta gowns with matching headpieces and mitts, and carried pink camellias and lavender and white sweet peas.

Johnnie List was ring bearer, and Annette Brown was flower girl. She wore a shell pink dress with matching headpiece and mitts, and carried a basket of rose petals.

Jimmy and Carolyn Dixon lighted the candles before the ceremony. She wore a deep rose taffeta dress.

Lavern Sheets served as best man for his brother, and ushers were Tony Harmon, cousin of the bride, David Thompson and Dick Bangle.

The mother of the bride was attired in a royal blue gown with black accessories, and a white carnation corsage, while the bridegroom's mother chose navy blue with pink accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The bridal couple received congratulations at a reception in Fellowship hall of the Nazarene church, where stock and snapdragons and white candles in silver holders provided decoration. After they had cut the first slice of the four-tiered cake, according to tradition, the Misses Louise Roper and Meriline Horsch continued the cutting and serving. Miss Beverly Ann Sheets presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Catherine Motsinger had charge of the guest book.

When the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in San Diego, the bride was wearing a gray suit with pink accessories. They will make their home at 233½ El Morado court, Ontario.

The new Mrs. Sheets is a graduate of Chaffey high school. Her husband was also graduated from Chaffey high school and from Woodbury Business college. He is now employed as a draftsman for the General Telephone company.

Pest Control Group Told Of New Spray For Killing Scale

Citrus pests are losing in their battle.

Dr. Glen Carman of the Citrus Experimental station, Riverside, told Citrus Pest Control association members at their annual meeting this week that Malathion, a new product, is now as effective in treatment for red-scale as Parathion.

Malathion, used in conjunction with oil, is far safer to use than is Parathion and also less toxic to trees, Dr. Carman declared. It was his expressed opinion "there is no place left for the use of Parathion and oil and its use should be entirely replaced by Malathion and oil."

Ralph Moon, manager of the association, commented after the meeting, Dr. Carman's statement is the first announcement of the effectiveness of the new treatment and markes a big milestone in the fight against scale.

Airport Owner Cites Danger In Reservoir Height

Dewey Cable, owner of Cable-Claremont airport, lodged a letter of protest with the city council concerning height of a new city reservoir being installed at 14th St. and Benson Ave. which he terms a "hazard" to planes using the main runway of the airport.

He points out in his letter that the 1,500,000 gallon steel reservoir will stand 33 feet above ground level and only 638 feet from the end of the runway. He said a letter of notification from the city to the CAA set this distance at 1,000 feet which is in error.

According to graduated specifications by CAA for buildings adjacent to an airport, the reservoir should not be more than 10 feet high, Mr. Cable said.

He said the main flight patterns by planes using this runway will be only 238 feet from the reservoir and this presents an obvious hazard in case of engine failure.

The letter was submitted as a protest against installation of the reservoir which is contrary to safety measures, he said.

City Manager R. G. Manley reported that a letter had been written from his office Feb. 15 in accordance with CAA requirements that they be notified 30 days ahead of construction.

"They have made no comment to date," he said.

The 30 day notification period will be terminated March 15, he pointed out.

Councilmen agreed that the reservoir would be no greater hazard to flight patterns than the power lines and trees already existing in this area.

James L. Lucier, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lucier, 771 West Arrow highway, is home from San Antonio hospital after a tonsillectomy.

Engineer Firm Here To Plan For Projects

Indicative of the future development likely for the entire area east of Pomona, is the announcement today the Jennings Engineering Co. has established a branch office at 176 North Second avenue, Upland. This will be the third branch office for the firm which specializes in "land development and subdivisions." Ray Vincenti is the office manager.

For the present, the personnel will be working on plans for development other than in the immediate area but within a month a registered engineer will be assigned here. At that time, work is expected to be handled concerning on assignments on property in Upland, Ontario and elsewhere.

"Upland was chosen as location for the office due to its location between Pomona and San Bernardino," Mr. Vincenti said. Other branch offices are in Ventura and Santa Ana. Asked if coming of the firm to the area meant anything definitely, Mr. Vincenti said: "Our firm apparently is convinced this district will be the next center of major development. The area has now been virtually developed east from Los Angeles to Pomona. Our company is accustomed to dealing with large projects involving industries, commercial and subdivisions."

The office staff at present will draft into engineering specifications the results obtained by members of two field crews now at work east of Los Angeles, according to Mr. Vincenti.

Alta Loma P-TA Elects Officers For Coming Year

Officers for the coming year were nominated and elected during the Fathers Night meeting of the Alta Loma Parent-Teacher association Thursday evening at the school. Mrs. Joe Voss, president, presjded.

Mrs. Howard J. Kilmurray was chosen president; and others who will serve with her are Mrs. George T. Stamm, Jr., first vice-president; Peter Amodt, second vice-president; Mrs. Myrta Crilly secretary; Mrs. Roy Cabe, treasurer; and Mrs. Jack Beekman, historian.

Cub Scouts of Den 1 led in the pledge of allegiance and in the singing of "God Bless America." Aldo Bosi, Scout representative, presented Ray Derfer, who in turn introduced the Cub leaders:- John Orchard, Carl Zimmerman, Mrs. Jack Beekman, Mrs. Lloyd Guinn and Mrs. Ernest C. Williams.

Inspection of the Cubs followed, and they were presented with their awards.

Brownies of Troops 131 and 27 entertained with a skit, songs and demonstrations, and Girl Scouts of Troops 26 and 14 sang a number of songs.

Under the direction of Anton Rodriguez, Boy Scouts of Troo 1, gave a beautiful ceremon exemplifying the Scout oath.

It was announced that a fash ion show and the installation o the new officers will highligh the April 14 meeting.

Closing the evening, cake baked by the Girl Scouts wer served.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph H. Harwood, 8204 Avenida Vejar, Cu camonga, are receiving congrat ulations over the arrival of a baby son, born March 1, at 8:27 a.m., at the new Kaiser Founda tion hospital in Fontana. He has been named Paul Noel, and is welcomed by a big brother, Wil liam James, five years old, a 16-month-old sister, Corinna Lou ise, and a proud grandmother.

ouncil Names Francis Johnson s Parking District Appraiser

rancis Johnson, State inheritance tax appraiser, was rened by City Manager R. G. anley, after approval by the y council, to evaluate property four downtown districts desigted for use under a proposed rking assessment district.

A limitation of $500 for the cost the appraisal was set by the uncil.

Mr. Johnson will start work on aluation of the property next week, Mr. Manley said. He formerly lived on Red Hill, but recently the family moved to San Bernardino.

During the council meeting a letter was read from T. Victor MacRill asking that property he owns at 390, 392 and 396 N. Second Ave. be deleted from the petition presented by proponents of the parking assessment district.

Paul Hottel, president of the chamber of commerce, told councilmen that the value of property owned by Mr. MacRill was not used in compiling figures relative to the proposed district and his withdrawal would make no difference in the evaluation represented in favor of the district nor in the percentage figures.

ouncil Okays hree Projects or $6,500,000

ld councilmen a verbal underanding was in force between e developer and the flood conol district.

Approval was voted first to a hange to commercial (C-4) from pecial or flood control land, on strip 1,340 feet long, running ast of the Santa Fe spur track o the easterly city limits on the orth side of Foothill Blvd.

The frontage to a depth of 240 eet is zoned for commercial. Mr. Bertisch asked to deepen his strip by 360 feet which ould throw about 11 acres into commercial development to ccommodate a subdivision planed under a second zone change equest.

Large Subdivision

The second application by Mr. Bertisch included nearly all the balance of the 174 acres at this ocation obtained from the San Antonio Water company under a purchase agreement. A small corner extends into county territory and later annexation proceedings will be necessary to complete the tract.

The council voted for the city attorney to prepare an ammendment to the zoning ordinance authorizing, subject to release by the flood control district, a change in zone from special to residential (R-1C).

The tract, as shown by tentative map, will include 379 lots on which homes will be constructed.

Answering a previous request by Mr. Bertisch for relief from some of the costs under Upland's subdivision ordinance, City Manager R. G. Manley reported that a special committee found no special need for alleys in the development and the cost of this installation could be eliminated.

Aid on Improvements

The city will also bring water mains to the edge of the tract but the subdivider will be required to install a sewer trunk line from 10th St. along Grove Ave. to the property, Mr. Manley said.

Mr. Manley was unable to give the developers an idea as to the cost of the sewer line until an engineering study could be made. He said the figures, concerning the size for the trunk line, will be available by the next council meeting, March 24.

Mr. Goss told councilmen the hotel - restaurant development would represent an outlay of more than $500,000 and Mr. Bertisch said the commercial and subdivision projects proposed for the flood control land would run at least $5,500,000.

Debaters Win Second Place

The debate team of Paul Boyer and John Raser won second place in a Southern California collegiate forensics association annual championship tournament held at Pepperdine college last week.

Boyer and Raser, undefeated in four preliminary rounds at Tucson last fall only to be dropped in the first round of eliminations, preceeded through the quarters, semi-finals and into the final round in last weekend's tournament.

In the final round of the tournament, they lost a split decision to the University of Southern California. The division in which they participated contained 40 teams out of the 76 teams entered from Southwestern United States schools.

Among the teams defeated by the Upland college team were Los Angeles State, Cal Tech, Stanford, Pomona college, Pasadena City college, and George Pepperdine college.

Paul Haas and Shirley Book, the other team fielded by the Upland school achieved excellent ratings for their performances in the same division, and downed an excellent Pepperdine freshman team in the first round.

Council-Planners To Decide On Alleys in Joint Session

A report by Simon Eisner during a joint study meeting of the planning commission and city council was voted at a recent council meeting to determine the future policy concerning alleys in property developments in Upland.

The decision was reached following a discussion touched off by a letter from E. E. Hawthorne, chairman of the Upland Taxpayers Assoc. He held that alleys were outmoded, dirty and added a cost of $1,000 an acre to subdivision developments. That other cities were dropping alleys from their planning, was his contention.

Councilman Abner Haldeman pointed out that a definite policy must be established concerning alleys. "The master plan for alley construction broke down when we voted to allow the first self-contained subdivision without alleys. Tonight we agreed to give a title of 'self-contained' to the 379 lot subdivision proposed by Mr. Bertisch. This in itself points that we do not have a definite procedure and that one is needed."

Mayor Wants Alleys

Mayor E. Tweed Stone pointed out the lack of access for utility services when lots do not have alleys. He said: "In San Bernardino where residents in lots without alleys want their garbage picked up at the door they pay a charge of as much as $8 a month for this service. Alleys are necessary for good fire and police protection. I for one am in favor of alleys in all developments."

Councilman Robert Thrall said: "If we are willing to do something about alleys in a 379 lot subdivision then we should have a review of our policy and find out what we are going to do in other subdivisions. The policy seems to have broken down and we had better get together and re-appraise the whole deal."

Councilman Don Carr challenged the increased costs to subdividers mentioned in the letter, as irrelevant to the issue.

"We should look at this thing constructively after spending $4,000 to establish a master plan. The question to me is—are alleys needed or can we get along better without them. This question has nothing to do with the cost of developing lots. If we want a good city we will have to pay for it and not on the basis of the tax dollar."

Costs Important

E. E. Hawthorne, writer of the letter, spoke from the audience in answer to Councilman Carr and pointed out that development cost is important. "A subdivider showed me figures recently," he said, "where it cost him $2,100 a lot for improvements and when he went to get an appraisal for loan purposes all they would allow was $1,900. He has to absorb this $200 difference some place in the construction of the house he puts on the lot. Development costs are important to future growth."

Councilman Carr answered: "Then what we need is a complete revision of the master plan. Let's don't go into this thing piecemeal. Let's revise the master plan so we will know where we are going."

After added discussion the joint meeting and report from Mr. Eisner was voted to be the most direct approach to the question of alleys, which has plagued every council session for the past two years.

Capt Foote And Family Arrive In Ethiopia

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Foote, 430 North Central avenue, have received word that their son, Capt. George C. Foote, Jr., and his family have arrived in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, where he will be stationed for two years as communications adviser.

He wrote of their trip and the sightseeing trips at all the port stops. He said that Naples, Italy, is a beautiful city, sunny and warm, reminding one of Southern California without smog. Tripoli reminded them of San Diego.

The altitude at Addis Ababa is 8,500 feet, and one tires easily, he said. The temperature is around 80 degrees, and lots of sunshine. The heavy rains will start in June and last for three months.

Capt. Foote said that while th Ethiopians have dark skins, their features are like the Cau casians.

Donald Georges Appointed As Police Patrolman

Donald Georges

Don Georges, 29, 8802 Via Carillo was appointed as a patrolman on the Upland police department staff earlier this week by City Manager R. G. Manley after recommendation by Police Chief Ralph Palmer.

Mr. Georges will report for duty next Tuesday.

He scored second in a written examination given to 21 applicants and was high in an oral examination. The written examination accounted for 60 per cent of the total score in figuring the candidate's eligibility. The high man in the written examination scored third in the oral examination placing Mr. Georges at the top of the eligibility list.

The new patrolman is a native of St. Louis, Mo., and has served in the Army, Navy and Air Force. He came to California when transferred to March AFB, Riverside, and was discharged from the service at this station.

He served with the Air Force in Korea and with the Navy during World War II. He was with the merchant marine prior to his first Navy enlistment.

He moved to Upland after leaving the service and worked for Douglas Aircraft Co., at Ontario International Airport, until this firm moved their facilities. He then went with Winston Bros. Construction Co. on the San Antonio dam project as a machine parts expediter.

He is married and the couple has three small children.

Richard B. Adams, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Adams, 897 North Third place, returned home Monday from San Antonio hospital after receiving medical care.

Sharps and Flats

By Chuck Barlow

There's a lot of screwballs driving automobiles who ought to go in for aviation and get it over with quickly, or have their operating permits torn to shreds.

A run-down of a day's take in traffic tickets makes one wonder what people are thinking when they drive at such insane speeds. Their cars would run completely out of control at the slightest mishap.

Upland's traffic officers have been commended many times for their courtesy. How an officer can look a potential murderer in the eye and smile is beyond me. It is part of their job and they do it—and nicely.

Lower speed violations on Foothill Blvd. can be explained to a point. The traffic speeds vary and the 35 m.p.h. zone at the approach to the Euclid Ave. intersection might be overlooked in heavy traffic if a driver was watching cars ahead and behind.

Many offenders of speed regulations on the new Ramona freeway are operating beyond any semblance of sanity. Airplanes land at slower speeds than these screwballs drive.

Glancing over a pile on traffic tickets the other day the first thing I noticed was the number for excessive speed. Sandwiched in, now and then, was one for a parking violation.

The day started off with a San Gabriel driver getting a ticket for doing 65 in a 45 mile zone on Foothill Blvd. while driving westbound. He was a nice guy, handed out no guff and signed his ticket without protest. In fact, he acted hurt to think he had goofed.

A few minutes later a Banning driver eastbound on Foothill was hauled up for doing 50 through the 35 m.p.h. zone at the Euclid intersection. He was born in 1898 but looked 20 years younger. Like the majority of offenders he was worried at his own blunder and lamely excused himself because he didn't see "the sign marking the 35 m.p.h. zone.

The next presentation went to a San Diego driver who missed the red light at Euclid while eastbound on Foothill. He claimed to have had the green light and signed the ticket with an air of violated innocence.

The next was one of those mixed-up-kids. He was southbound on Euclid in the northbound lane. He came off the freeway westbound and turned south in the first lane. He was stopped south of the bridge and briefed on divided driveways.

While this was going on a patrolman on the new freeway was finding out how much speed the manufacturers packed in a Pontiac. He chased a San Bernardino driver west from Grove Ave. to beyond Central and clocked him doing more than 70 in a 55 mile zone. There was an attempt at denial but finally with a resigned shrug the driver signed the ticket..

The next run was longer. The chase started at Euclid and ended at Alexander Ave. The Los Angeles driver was surprised to tears when he learned how fast he was traveling. "Oh, yes," he said, "I must have been concentrating deeply on some business matter and failed to notice the speedometer."

He was given a ticket and a few traffic instructions to keep him sharp for the next leg of his journey. His speed was clocked at 75 m.p.h.

A Baldwin Park driver fouled up while entering the new freeway westbound from Euclid. He failed to stop before crossing the southbound lane. He was billed accordingly.

A 19-year-old Altadena youth on the new freeway was playing the part of an escapee from the Indianapolis speedway and passed nine cars, cutting in and out of the line of traffic, while trying to run the figures off the speedometer. He was brought to earth at Mills Ave. after a chase from Euclid.

Top speed of the day on the new freeway was chalked up against a Palos Verde driver who was cited for 90 m.p.h. but was clocked at a top speed of 100. The police Pontiac was straining its exhaust pipe before the chase ended at Etiwanda Ave. The starting line was at the Euclid Ave. overpass.

During the same day a Hespera driver was handed a ticket for doing 85 m.p.h. on Foothill between Campus and Central. He was finally stopped in Claremont.

Another offender came in for a citation after he overlooked stop signs at Campus, 11th St., F St., and Eighth Ave.

One woman parked overtime in the 10-minute zone in front of the post office. This was some change of pace compared to action earlier in the day.

The last ticket was written and delivered to a driver in city jail. He was charged with drunk driving and there was a good chance the charge might be changed to felony drunk driving.

A mother and two children were injured in an accident in which he was involved. When police arrived, his car—and you figure this one out—was northbound on Foothill Blvd.

He thought he drove out of a private driveway, but wasn't sure.

Lack of courtesy is responsible for a large number of the traffic tickets. People get into a car and become obsessed with the power under their foot. They seem to forget that the same laws of behavior governs driving that governs conduct in pedestrian activities.

Maybe the state vehicle department should include a few instructions on good manners in the driving booklet and insert a few questions on the subject in the examination for permits.

Founders Day Event Scheduled At Chaffey JC

Invitations have been mailed to former students, graduates and friends of Chaffey college to participate in annual founders' day event scheduled for next Thursday to start with a luncheon and reception.

Refreshments will be furnished by the Chaffey college Homemaking department.

Check Writer To Answer Charges

Charles E. Mickler, 24, Riverside, will appear today for preliminary hearing on charges of passing no account checks in Upland justice court before Judge Fred H. Jacobs.

Wanted in five cities, the alleged check passer last Thursday crashed a car he was driving into a street car in Glendale. He went to Wadsworth veterans administration hospital for medical care. Hospital officials notified police of the emergency case and an investigation followed.

Mickler was arrested by Los Angeles police when an investigation disclosed he was wanted in Riverside, Redlands, Ontario, Pomona and Upland.

He was returned to Upland Thursday night by Officers Tom Davis and Bill Smith, and later taken to the county hospital prison ward for examination to determine full extent of injuries.

The wanted man passed two no account checks, for $15 each, in Upland on Feb. 21. One check was taken by Harold Rowe's service station at 456 N. Second Ave., and the other by Haigh Bros. service station.

St. Louis, Mo., is limited to an area of 61 square miles.

Early Students Make Founders Day Plans

Many friends will gather to remember old times at Chaffey and enjoy the Founders Day reception, from 2:30-5:30 p.m. Thursday, in the Chaffey Memorial library. Several friends visited with Miss Adeline Nyberg, curator of the Chaffey historical room, this week. They hope to see many Chaffey friends and graduates returning for the reception. From left to right, Charles Bowser, Miss Nyberg, L. R. Bradley, and Frank Palmer.

Orange Prices Range Upward; Lemons Steady

Under an active demand and light arrivals, the California navel orange market advanced sharply during the week ending March 5. Volume sold by Sunkist Growers totaled around 725 cars, approximately 50 cars less than that of last week, but prices jumped almost 70 cents to $4.50 a box f.o.b.

With only 600 cars of navels left for shipment in fresh channels from Central California and the estimated on-tree crop in Southern California reduced from 17,250 cars to 16,750 cars, it is anticipated prices on medium to large size navels will be maintained at substantial levels and a further improvement will be made by small size fruit.

The California lemon market made some improvement during the week, particularly on large size fruit but there was little change pricewise in the balance of the size range. Sales by Sunkist were unchanged from last week, totaling around 200 cars, and average prices held steady at $5.50 a box f.o.b.

Chaffey Juniors Entertain At Tea

More than 600 Chaffey high school juniors entertained their parents at tea on Tuesday in the Chaffey homemaking auditorium. Students of the class of 1956 introduced their parents to teachers and class officers.

Theme of the afternoon decorations and the tea table were "The Circus Tent." This gay decoration was placed in the middle of the table with cages around it. The modern dance class performed during the program.

Junior officers formed a receiving line for the guests: Joe LeBeau, president; Margaret Walker, vice-president; Marlene Merlino, secretary; and Norma Ammannito, treasurer.

Hogs trample and eat any snake they see, their thick layer of fat protecting them from bad effects of poisonous bites.

Mayor Holds That Euclid Not Getting Proper Recognition

Mayor E. Tweed Stone is unhappy about the lack of recognition given Euclid Ave. by the state highway department relative to signs along the San Bernardino freeway.

Hizzoner told the council recently that Euclid was the only main avenue not bearing an appropriate sign as one traveled to Pomona. "Mountain, Central, Alexander, Garey, White, in fact all the main avenues have big signs designating their locations. But, what does Euclid Ave. have? Just a little directional sign that is in no way compatible with the fame of the avenue," the mayor pointed out.

The council directed a letter be written to the highway commission asking for a suitable sign for the famous double drive.

Pupils Rating Here High; Community Proud Of Schools

One reason many families favor the Upland district as a place in which to live is the educational standard of the Upland school system. Parents prefer to live in this area so their children can profit by attending the Upland schools.

It is of no general surprise, therefore, to learn that results of a recent test among Upland fourth, fifth, sixth and eighth graders revealed that students in most of the grades scored an average above the established "norm". In fact, it would have been quite a revelation if the test results here were not as they were.

The tests concerned pupils' knowledge of the fundamentals—reading, language and arithmetic. Lack of instruction in these basic subjects is sometimes the basis for criticism in other areas. If nothing else, the test results should reassure parents—and all the taxpayers—that excellent use is being made of the community's educational facilities.

Credit for the high standards of the Upland schools can go to many people, including the Upland board of education members, the teachers and the administration.

We know the general public appreciates the schools in this area and we are glad of this opportunity to express for everyone in the community, Uplanders' sincere appreciation for the classroom achievements.

Water District Is Another Smart Move For Cucamonga, Alta Loma People

It appears to most people that Cucamonga and Alta Loma are doing everything about right.

Zoning of the area was recently completed, provisions being made for agricultural pursuits, industrial development, business area and residential sites.

The latest accomplishment is formation of a water district to provide for the distribution of Colorado river water to any parcel of land from Fourth street, Ontario to the uppermost lot in the foothills.

On Wednesday morning of last week, a businessman in the area reported two real estate transactions depended upon outcome of the election. He said a favorable vote meant an investment of outside capital in land. If one only knew it, probably every acre of land within the district was very favorably affected by the vote approving the district.

It is hard for us here to understand where people are coming from or where they are going to work after they get here. All we know is that demand for property is here and residents in the new water district are going to get crowded with all the newcomers who will arrive in due time.

Democrats Welcome To Have Senator Morse; 1956 Vote To Be Watched

Effect of Senator Wayne Morse's switch to the Democratic party at the 1956 elections will be watched with wide interest. The one-time Republican, later an Independent, and now a full-fledged Democrat, may face some strong opposition at the polls next year.

Oregon Governor Patterson, a Republican, is being groomed as a likely opponent. This is what one of the political independent Oregon newspapers has to say about this situation:

"Senator Wayne Morse has at last made the complete switch to the Democratic party, which, of course, is his privilege. The change from the Republican party, under whose banner he was twice elected to the United States senate, then to independent when he broke with the party in 1952 and now to being a Democrat, was not unexpected because he had been playing footsie with the latter for some time.

"In fact, there are many who felt that he was more of a Democrat all the time and should have run under that label. While his record shows that the role of an independent is more in keeping with his attitude and also with his publicity-consciousness, it is much more expedient to be a member of a party at election time in order to have organization backing. He is a one-party man, rather than a team player, and we can imagine that all will not be sweetness and light in his new haven. How he will get along with the conservative southern Democrats will be interesting to watch.

"While the Republican party is far less reactionary now than when Morse was campaigning vigorously for it and supporting some of the most reactionary of senators, he charges it now with being under the domination of reactionaries. He attacks Repubican leadership in the state, but it is substantially the same as it was when he first campaigned in 1944 and again in 1950 and did not hesitate to accept their backing.

"Really, the Democrats should have had him sooner. They are welcome to him. Of course, there are conservative Democrats who will not be enthused for he is not of their kind."

THIS LIFE WE LIVE

By James V. Latimer

We Like People:

A New York columnist recently wrote of a man whom he ranks at the top of the list in the editorial field of journalism. That editor wrote his life story a few months ago and it is considered to be among the best. The secret of it is that he likes people. He is Mr. Grove Patterson of the Toledo Blade. I was led to ask myself how much I think a community is moulded by the attitude of its newspapers. I answered my question and said "Very much".

It is possible that some editors still hold the idea that the public is of no importance and that their paper is the only thing that matters. Yet the editor of the paper that is really worth while is the one whose ear is tuned to the voice of his public, and whose eyes are ever open to see new truth. The friendly attitude of that editor in Ohio is said to have changed the whole town and to have welded it into a splendid whole. We too can save our city from any possible cliques or groups if we maintain a friendly attitude and continue to like people.

I seem to remember that it was Will Rogers who declared that he had never yet met a man from whom he could not learn something good. That may not be the correct statement of his thought, but the spirit is right. It would be a sad day for me personally if I walked down our streets without friendly greetings from friends. Two weeks ago I was chided for passing up a friend on the street. I said that possibly I was in deep thought, for I would not knowingly pass by my friends with their smiles and friendly greetings. She told me it was bad for my brain to engage in deep thought, and I promised better care. I am not wanting to be held down by our daily problems, but ever be open to the finer things in life.

I am glad that our editor VVP sees people and ever calls a cheery "Hi", even though we have not paid in full for the Upland News. It does me good to see him. Our paper is filled with personal items of interest. It serves the people, and we like it. We must not expect him to remember the name and birthdays of all the fine babies in our city, but we are glad he knows some of us by name.

Friendships build lives and souls grow big because of the daily greetings from friends. Let the people know you like them. It will do you good.

The Hills Of Home

By Ernest A. Dart

I love the draping hills
That rise above our home
So stalwart, and majestic
Those hills we call our own.

Some may choose the ocean
Where the billows toss and foam
I'll take the charm and beauty
Of the hills around our home.

From Maine to California
Where ever I may roam
Few scenes are more enchanting
Than the hills above our home.

In the early morning dawn
Or in the twilight gloam
There's a never failing beauty
In the hills around our home.

I love the pungent fragrance
Where the sage and pine are grown
I love the cliffs and canyons
In the hills around our home.

As I view the rugged cliffs
New pleasures seem to come,
New hope, and inspiration
From the hills around our home.

When I lift up my eyes
To Baldy's lofty dome
I breathe a prayer of thankfulness.
For the hills so near our home.

Though storms may break around
And earth may shake and groan
There's a restful peace sustained
In the hills around our home.

Some ducks lose half a pound of weight on long flights.

Suggestons By Property Owners To Get Council Committee Action

The city council recently answered item for item the points brought out in a letter from the Associated Property Owners and referred a number of the suggestions to committees for action.

Widening the bridge in the 1300 block on E. Ninth St. would cost about $8,000 and the money necessary for the work has more important uses at this time. Until the financial pressure on the city treasury is lessened the bridge widening proposal will have to wait, the council said.

Removal of trees at the entrance to Central Ave. on Arrow Highway is outside city jurisdiction but the request was forwarded to the county highway department for action.

Removal of a tree at the southwest corner of Foothill Blvd, and San Antonio Ave. was requested by the property owners and this request was referred to the street committee.

Library Addition

The suggestion that more library space be provided by adding a wing brought a report from Councilman Robert Thrall, chairman of the finance committee, that for two years money budgetted for this purpose had to be used for other more pressing needs. A budget is set up to complete this addition, he told the property owners.

City Manager R. G. Manley reported that curbs on the extension of C St. east of Third Ave. did not comply with engineering requirements and did not match Washington Blvd. curbs as pointed out in the property owner's letter. He said a correction in this construction is being required.

TO COMMITTEES

The buildings jutting out into Campus Ave. north of the Santa Fe tracks were discussed by the council and the matter referred to the street committe. The same committee was assigned to study a request for street lights in the first alley east of Second Ave. between C St. and Arrow Highway.

Subject of sidewalks at Pacific Electric railroad crossings was referred to City Attorney Henry Busch. The request for these sidewalks is subject to railroad company action as the crossing is railroad company property, the property owners learned.

Loyalty Oath Leader To Be Lions Speaker

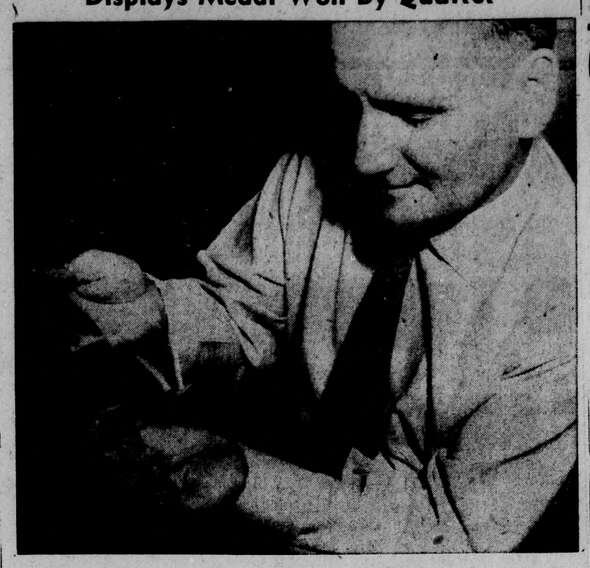

Legal right to require a loyalty oath from public employes and the legal machinery to oust communists from schools will be discussed by Harold Kennedy at the meeting of the Upland Lions club at noon today. Mr. Kennedy is counsel for Los Angeles county and prior to his present position he was a deputy in the office and a deputy district attorney.

"The Historical Ordeal of Our Times" will be his subject. He is credited with pioneering the policy of requiring a loyalty oath from public employes, this practice being defended before the U.S. supreme court. Mr. Kennedy also authored the so-called Dilworth act creating legal machinery to oust communists from the public schools.

He is a long-time personal friend of Leigh Thompson, who will serve as program chairman at the meeting. The meeting will be held in the Upland Woman's clubhouse with President Mark Bradburn in charge.

Other members of the quartet are Don Moss, Covina, Bob Buckham, Pomona and Jim Swope, Pomona.

The film will show people as they actually live.

Mr. Bowman is one of the founders of the Far East Broadcasting Co., which used its radios for sending missionary messages to people in the Orient.

The general public is invited to attend.

Polly Hale Named Social Chairman For JC Honor Society

Polly Hale, 583 Quince Ave., and Phoebe Sibley, 742 Rosewood Ct., Ontario, were elected social chairmen of the Chaffey college chapter of the California junior college honor society, Alpha Gamma Sigma, for the second semester of the term. Building Plans For Water District Office Being Made

Tentative office building plans are being prepared by the Chino Basin Municipal Water district, the new structure to be located on Arrow highway just east of Archibald avenue, Cucamonga. The district, which is the official agency in handling Colorado water district distribution problems, purchased the site sometime ago.

Plans have been sketched by Dewey Harnish, architect, and by the association directors.

The directors are also making plans for construction of a pump house on Benson avenue at Fifth street, Ontario.

3 Subdivisions Get Final Okay By City Council

The city council quickly ratified all action approved at a recent meeting of the planning commission last week when two records of survey, three subdivisions and transfer of proposed subdivision land to a school site, came up for handling.

A record of survey by William I. McCully for a lot running 150 feet on Bowen St. and 105 feet on Bodenhammer St. was approved in accordance with the map presented.

Another record of survey was approved for W. A. Hawkinson for a lot 471 feet long on the west side of Euclid Ave. above 17th St.

Howard Bowles, Upland realtor, received approval of an addition of 8 lots to a 15-lot subdivision previously approved south of 15th St. and east of Euclid Ave.

Mr. Bowles and Fred Aldous were given the green light on a proposed subdivision south of 15th St. that will run to Sierra Vista elementary school. They proposed to sell 2.35 acres of this tract to the school district.

Addition of the acreage to the school site was approved subject to installation of a chain link fence between school property and the subdivision.

D. A. Gannon received final approval for a 40-lot subdivision at the northwest corner of 11th St. and San Antonio Ave. He had previously been given tentative approval and final endorsement was made with submission of a permanent subdivision map.

There's even more to Chevrolet styling than meets the eye!

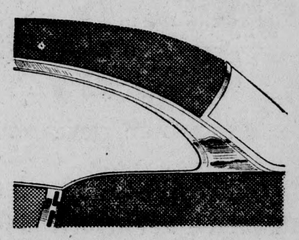

1 Visored headlights

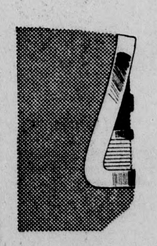

2 Louvered High-Level air intake

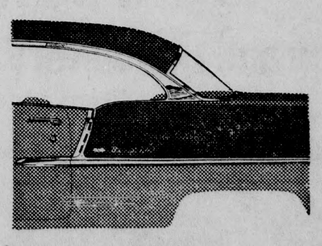

3 Sweep-Sight windshield

4 Distinctive dip in belt line

5 Fender-high taillights

6 Tasteful two-tone color styling

This is beauty with a bonus . . . for Chevrolet styling is designed to add safety and comfort while you drive, and to return greater value when you trade.

Truly modern lines are shaped by usefulness. You can see what we mean in the deep crystal curve of Chevrolet's Sweep-Sight windshield . . . a dramatic style note, certainly, but one that stems from the need for wider, safer vision. Or take high-set taillights—they add to the impressive length of line . . . but they are up where they can be seen for safety's sake.

The smart louvers across the hood aren't just decoration . . . they mark the intake for the High-Level ventilation system for cleaner, fresher air. And the whole shape of the body—its lowness, the dipped belt line—is merely a reflection of a lowered center of gravity, the added stability.

This is truly functional styling that serves you better every mile, and preserves its value against the distant day when you trade. This is Body by Fisher—another Chevrolet exclusive in the low-price field. Come in and let us demonstrate that this new Chevrolet is just as exciting to drive as to look at!

Wanda Wilkins And Charles Killion Exchange Vows In Church Ceremony

The Little Cathedral of the Foothills was the setting for the wedding on Sunday, February 27, of Miss Wanda Inez Wilkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Wilkins, 883 North Third avenue, and Charles Michael Killion, son of Mr.and Mrs. H. E. Killion, 1340 Council avenue, Ontario.

Dr. Ralph W. Lee, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony at 3:00 p.m. in the presence of some 200 relatives and friends. Decorating the chancel were potted palms and two large baskets of white stock, flanked by candelabra. On the altar was a smaller bouquet of white flowers.

As the guests were assembling, Mrs. Carl Hess, organist, gave a prelude of appropriate selections. She played the traditional wedding marches and also accompanied the vocalist, Miss Alice Richmond, who sang "I Love Thee", "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor length gown of white tulle and lace over satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline and short sleeves, and the full skirt was of lace panels over tulle. A lace tiara trimmed with seed pearls secured her fingertip veil, and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Kay Rhenstrom of Santa Barbara attended the bride as maid of honor. She was gowned in aqua taffeta, ballerina-length, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Rose Ann Biane of San Diego and Miss Emalou Nelson of San Diego, wore identical ballerina-length gowns of rose taffeta, and carried pink roses.

Chris Tennyson was ring bearer, and Judy Wilkins, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white organdy floor-length dress with skirt of ruffles, and carried a basket of sweet peas.

Robert Emilio of Ontario served the bridegroom as best man, and ushers were Jerry Goodman of Upland, Fred Patterson and Richard Fielder, of Ontario.

The mother of the bride was attired in navy blue silk, with a pink hat and a corsage of pink rosebuds, while the bridegroom's mother chose a cocoa knit suit with matching hat, and yellow rosebud corsage.

Following the ceremony, the bridal couple received congratulations at a reception in the Upland Woman's club house. After they had cut the first slice of the three-tiered cake, according to tradition, it was cut and served by Miss Jeannie Campos, Mrs. R. A. Bennett and Miss Betty Ramsdell. Miss Mary Lou Pratt and Miss Joan Litwiller presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Mitnee Duque had charge of the guest book.

When the newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Big Bear, the bride was wearing a winter white knit dress with matching hat and avocado accessories, and an orchid corsage. They will reside in San Jose.

A graduate of Chaffey high school, the new Mrs. Killion has been employed as a stenographer at Convair, Pomona.

The bridegroom was also graduated from Chaffey high school, and now is a student at San Jose State College, where he is majoring in economics. He served for two years in the U. S. Army, with overseas duty in Europe.

Uplander Given 1921 Copy Of News Telling Of His First Visit

One of several old copies of The Upland News unearthed at the First National Bank was presented to R. A. Franklin, 691 N. Third Ave. when members of the bank staff found a story of Mr. Franklin's first trip to California on the front page.

Following this trip in 1921, Mr. Franklin returned to Upland and bought a five-acre grove at 910 W. 11th St. for $15,000. His home when he first visited in Upland was at Abilene, Kan.

In the story, Mr. Franklin told of the expense to himself and three companions making the trip. Gas was listed at $43.71, oil $3.45, and storage, $3.50. The four men paid a dollar a night for hotel rooms and meals averaged 55 cents each. Eight days were required for the trip and they arrived in Upland Feb. 22.

Glen Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Franklin, now operates the citrus ranch on 11th St.

Council Approves Bids For City's Gasoline For Next 12 Months

The city council recently approved contracts with Signal Oil Co., and Standard Oil Co. for 40,000 gallons of gasoline after bids were opened during a council meeting. The gasoline under contract represents the amount to be used by the city during the coming year.

The Signal Oil Co. bids were low on aviation gasoline at .246 and ethel gasoline at .206 per gallon. The Standard Oil Co. price on regular gasoline was low at .181 per gallon.

Ford Leadership In Sales Reported Here

Upland Motors is in receipt of figures showing that during 1954 sale of Ford automobiles exceeded that of any other make of cars.

Jack Christensen and Harry W. Wright, partners, quoted figures from R. L. Polk & Co. to show that Ford led in sales by 25,257 units.

Instruction In Actual Driving Is New Course

At least 360 Chaffey high school students next fall will receive specialized "behind-the-wheel" training in learning how to drive an auto.

Among the first to receive the driver training will be students under 16 years of age who do not have a driver's license. The course will not be offered at the Upland high school.

This will be an experimental course and it is the plan to extend it to more students in each succeeding year. The course will be offered in the Upland high school as juniors and seniors are registered here. Chaffey board of education members recently approved the new course on recommendation of Carlyle Lovewell, curriculum coordinator.

Cost of behind-the-wheel driver training is estimated at $36 per pupil. The district is eligible to receive a reimbursement from the State Superintendent of Instruction for not more than $30 of this amount.

Cars for this instruction are furnished by local dealers. The course requires six hours of driving and 12 hours of observation.

Last Rites Held For Blanche Henderson

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Todd Memorial Chapel, Pomona, for Mrs. Blanche Henderson, wife of C. Edward Henderson, 9444 San Bernardino road, Cucamonga, who died Saturday at Ontario Community hospital after several months of failing health. She was nearly 70 years of age.

A native of Parma, Mich., she came to California from Hammond, Ore. in 1912, living in Pomona till 1928 when she moved to Cucamonga.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Chloe Bayliss of Mason, Mich.; and one brother, Selem Bronson of Carrollton, Mich.

Mrs. Henderson was a member of the Vicksburg Woman's Relief Corps of Pomona, which group gave its ritual during the funeral service. The Rev. Charles J. Clark of the United Cross Lutheran church of Rialto officiated, and entombment was in Pomona mausoleum.

Relay, Distance Running Still Weak

Varsity-Emerson Track Meet Today

Team Improves Under Guidance Of Dean Gahre

With Coach Jim Blake on the shelf since early this week because of illness the junior high school varsity track team has been working out under the direction of Dean Gahre, practise teacher from La Verne college, for the meet today with Emrson junior high school at Pomona.

Bernell Gregory, coach of the track team from the seventh and eighth grades has also been confined to his home because of illness and the younger lads have been working out religiously with a minimum of instruction. They have no immediate meet scheduled.

Fred Luna, varsity broad jumper, who placed second in a recent meet with Fremont junior high, of Pomona, has developed under Coach Gahre and promises to be shooting at top honors this afternoon.

Lloyd Hunter, who set a school low hurdle record against Fremont, is in top shape for this afternoon's running.

Still weak in distance running and relay departments, Coach Gahre has been juggling the squad to discover suitable relay material and distance competitors. Larry Beck and David Hershey indicated ability in both departments but can't be spared from other assignments.

Getting Ready For Competition This Afternoon

Fred Luna, left, second place broad jumper in a meet last week, and David Hershey, right, take a turn at the low hurdles to limber up as they prepare for tough competition today. Both men are stellar preformers on Coach Jim Blake's Varsity squad.

Water Level In Slight Gain In Two Local Basins

Water levels in Chino basin raised five feet during the year, the depth to water now being 404 feet, according to Don Adams, manager of the San Antonio Water Co. This "apparent increase in the static level" is undoubtedly due to idleness of the company's West Fourth street well, the official said. Water level in the Claremont Heights basin, which is also used locally, raised 14 feet, now standing at 339 feet below the surface.

Cucamonga Basin water levels dropped 14 feet to 340 feet below the surface, according to Mr. Adams' report on the water situation in this area.

The so-called Chino basin is by far the largest one from which Upland city and many local citrus growers obtain the water supply.

Committees To Make Study Of Flood Light Needs At City Park

The finance and recreation committees of the city council were instructed to make a joint study of the possible installation of two flood lights at Memorial park baseball diamond and construction of rest rooms at Olivedale park after a request was made for these facilities by Garwood Warders, commissioner of the little league.

Mr. Warders said present lighting was dangerous for boys playing in the pony league where balls are hit higher and farther. He said addition of one light on each side would correct this condition.

The committees were instructed to make the study and report to the council with recommendations for action.

More than 10,000 Scouts and Leaders enjoyed high adventure camping at the 127,000-acre Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimarron, New Mexico last year.

Prospective Buyer Vanishes With Car

Jack Hurt, 1059 E. Arrow highway, had a car for sale but he thought for about 24 hours he had disposed of it without monetary return.

He called police Saturday afternoon when a tentative buyer had been more than three hours supposedly trying the car out. Police were unable to locate the car and Mr. Hurt reported that night the car was still missing.

An anonymous telephone call from La Verne concerning the car was refused Sunday morning by Mr. Hurt when he was told the call was collect. He referred the party calling to the La Verne police.

Sunday afternoon Upland police found the undamaged car parked on the south side of C St. opposite city hall. A nearly full tank of gasoline had dwindled to about one-fourth tank during the try-out period, Mr. Hurt said.

Local Dog Club Plans Memorial Park Match

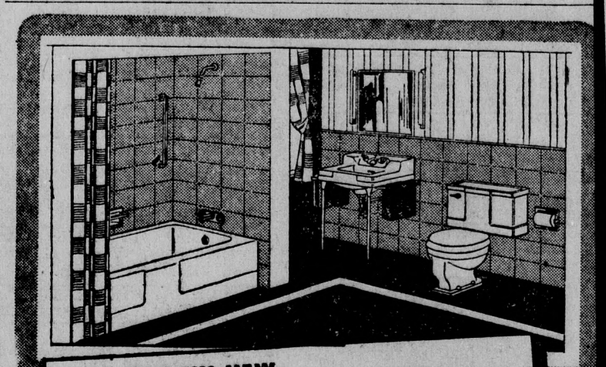

Approval was recently given by the city council to a request by the Madonna of the Trails Obedience club, to hold dog training trials at Memorial Park April 17. The club is made up of local dog owners and was organized a year ago.

The hunting leopard, or cheetah, large cat inhabiting the plains of Asia and Africa, is the world's fastest known animal over short distances.

Fay Zuccato Named President Of Girl Scout Troop No. 51

Fay Zuccato was elected president of Cucamonga Girl Scout troop No. 51 during a recent regular meeting.

Dorothy Mayfield was elected vice president, Pat Partridge, secretary, and Joyce Zuesenberry treasurer.

New patrol leaders named were Mary Lou Martinez and Lucille Martel for the Bluebirds and Lois Carson and Alice Echeverria for the Pinecones.

The troop voted to take a trip Saturday to Mt. Baldy and wear the new uniforms recently purchased with money earned selling Christmas cards and wraps.

Anticipate 500 Boys In Little League Play

If the present trend continues, 500 boys in the Upland district will be participating in the community's baseball program, it was revealed at a meeting of the Little League Baseball commission this week. Garwood Warders is head of the commission. Total of 280 youths have already signed up with many more expected to register soon. Three hundred boys participated in the diamond activity last year.

More teams will be formed to accomodate the number of registrants and Mr. Warders expressed the belief that a sufficient number of sponsors could be obtained for the summer competition. Local service clubs and firms take over the financial requirements of the various teams as sponsors.

Annual baseball "clinic" will be held during the school spring vacation. During the clinic, team coaches and managers analyze the candidates and then are prepared to select their players. Auctions will be held April 11, 12, and 13 when personnel of all teams will be named. Fifteen players are on each team.
